4. Title: Barrier crimes; adds extortion and felony violations of protective orders to statute

5. Summary: The enrolled legislation adds the following crimes to various barrier crimes statutes: abduction, extortion, and felony violations of protective orders. People who have been convicted or are the subject of pending charges of one of those crimes will not be able to work in a licensed nursing home, home care organization, or hospice and cannot work, volunteer, or provide services on a regular basis at a children's residential facility that is regulated or operated by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, certain structured residential programs for juveniles, or children's residential facilities regulated or operated by the Departments of Social Services, Education, or Military Affairs. Persons convicted of such crimes cannot be approved by a child placing agency as adoptive or foster parents and cannot be an adult foster care home provider or a provider of home-based adult services. In addition, they cannot work at certain schools, assisted living facilities, adult day care centers, child welfare agencies, or family day homes.
